Membership rules and regulations

Membership in the ABQ Photographic Resource Center does require basic responsibilities from each member. Our basic goal is to have a have a clean, comfortable business like working environment that is pleasant for everyone.

Our building is a Non smoking facility, so smoking is not permitted anywhere in our building. Loud noise or loud music is not permitted, If you make a mess, you must clean it up, and you must respect the privacy of other members. Alcohol is not permitted except in privet offices. If you break or damage any equipment, you will be responsible for it's repair. If you fail to return any books borrowed from the library you will be charged for their replacement.

If your membership is terminated for any reason, the balance of your membership will not be refunded.

I have read and understand the membership rules, and agree to abide by them.
